Student Unions' Statement to Urge Stronger and Immediate International Action

We, the undersigned Student Unions from all across Burma and in the diaspora, release this statement to call for immediate and strong action by the international community in their fight against the military junta and the COVID-19 pandemic.

Students and student unions have historically been at the forefront of the struggle against illegitimate rule and oppression in Burma – from Burma's independence movement, to the 1962 protests against Ne Win's coup d'état, the U Thant funeral uprising, the 1988 uprising, the 1996 protests, and 2007 Saffron revolution, to today's Spring Revolution, thousands of students have given their lives for the country's freedom. As we write this statement, many of our fellow student leaders remain in jail, some facing extreme torture in the interrogation centers.

Since the illegal military coup on Feb 1, Burma has been in deep political turmoil. As the military cracked down on peaceful demonstrations, over 920 people have been killed nationwide, with thousands detained and tortured. Additionally, hundreds of thousands in the ethnic areas have been displaced due to artillery attacks and air strikes.

To make matters worse, the COVID-19 pandemic is exacerbating the crisis, affecting millions that are already vulnerable from the violence of the coup. Hundreds, potentially thousands, of people are dying every day as the virus ravages the country. Meanwhile, the junta – in addition to upending the pandemic control efforts and vaccine rollout plans by the previous civilian government – has been cutting off critical lifesaving resources for the people. It has militarized hospitals and healthcare facilities and continues to threaten, arrest, and kill frontline doctors and nurses, making it impossible for the healthcare sector to function adequately. The junta is also shutting down oxygen plants and hoarding oxygen for their own use, while the civilians face an oxygen shortage, failing to save their loved ones.

The brutality of the Burmese military is outrageous and beyond comparison. Yet, for far too long, the international community has allowed them to enjoy impunity, even as they continue to commit mass atrocities against their own people. Many statements of “deep concern” released from various international entities not only are unsupportive but even undermine our struggles that many of our friends have sacrificed their lives for.

For decades, the people of Burma have been conveying their message loud and clear that the military has no support in the country. We have written our revolution with blood and bones that the military can never, ever rule us. It is about time the international community must start listening.

Hence, we, the undersigned Student Unions, urge for immediate and strong international action and demand the following:

- Impose a global arms embargo on the military junta since restricting arms flows to the military is critical in ending their impunity.
- Recognize and support the National Unity Government (NUG), including keeping Ambassador U Kyaw Moe Tun as the legitimate representative of Myanmar at the UN General Assembly in September.
- Immediately dispatch humanitarian aid and COVID-19 relief to Myanmar, channelled through cross-border mechanisms, international organisations, local CSOs, the NUG, and the Ethnic Health Organisations.
- Pressure the ASEAN and neighbouring countries to take similar steps instead of relying on them to take actions on their own against the junta; ASEAN's five-point consensus has proven to be weak and futile, and thus, the larger international community needs to step up with stronger, more vigorous measures.
- Sanction the Myanmar Oil and Gas Enterprise to deplete the military of a sizable portion of its revenues, which the military has allegedly been using to procure arms and military equipment.
